

APPLICATION

LSFI Expert Contributor on Voluntary Carbon Credits and Carbon Markets in Luxembourg

To be completed, signed, and sent to info@lsfi.lu together with a CV that clearly describes your experience. Please use email subject: "Application: VCCCM Expert Contributor – (Your Name)"

First and last name: _____

Position, Organisation: _____

Email address: _____

Phone number: _____

Based in (city and country): _____

I, the undersigned, apply to become an LSFI Expert Contributor on Voluntary Carbon Credits and Carbon Markets, to be consulted on the following areas of my expertise:

(Please tick the box indicating your main areas of expertise, maximum 2. An expert has several years of experience in actively working with carbon credits, within their specific area of expertise.)

☐	Legal treatment of Voluntary Carbon Credits
☐	Tax treatment of Voluntary Carbon Credits
☐	Accounting treatment of Voluntary Carbon Credits
☐	Standards related to Voluntary Carbon Credits
☐	Projects related to Voluntary Carbon Credits
☐	Investing and fund management in Voluntary Carbon Credits
☐	Other (please explain): _____

Yours sincerely,

_____, _____, _____
(Signature) (Location) (Date)

(Please fill in the Applicant Profile on the next page, and don't forget to submit your CV.)

Disclaimer

By submitting this application, you acknowledge that LSFI retains full discretion to approve or reject any application for becoming an Expert Contributor, based on its own assessment of suitability and fit. Acceptance as an Expert Contributor does not guarantee participation in any specific consultation. LSFI will select, for each consultation, the contributors whose expertise it deems most relevant to the topic at hand. Not all Expert Contributors will be called upon for every consultation.

